Children bullying and blackmailing other children does not make for comfortable reading. Blackman has bravely created a monster in Gemma yet she is so damaged and abused that we can understand why she feels driven to utilise a piece of amazing serendipity to abuse another damaged and troubled child (Mike) and thereby gain recognition and power for herself.

This fast moving story tells the stories of both children at once. An absorbing and moving thriller, it successfully evokes our sympathy for both of the victims, Gemma and Mike.
