Like all brothers, Jamie (rabbit) and his elder sibling ? the narrator, me ? have their ups and downs. They run and chase, sing, splash, turn upside down, play pretend games, read and sometimes, fight; though mostly, like all ?best brothers? they share.

Told through chunkily drawn pastel shapes that extend the brief rhyming text, this is a book to share with small children and for further adventures, don?t miss the fun and games in the delightful endpapers. JB
