Indispensable for all social historians and would-be members of the 'mod revival' (though I am told this is on the way 'out' for those who care to be 'in'). An insider's account of the whole scene from its origins in the late 1950s to its submergence with the rise of 'Love' and 'Flower Power' in the late 1960s. A careful and meticulous tracing of influences in music and fashion - much appreciated by the connoisseur - plus over 150 photographs from the period.
