This 'I Can Read' title has been a firm favourite ever since its first appearance in this country over a decade ago, and has now deservedly become a classic of its kind. In it, Papa Mouse tells seven delightfully dotty bedtime stories --- one for each of his offspring --- as they snuggle down together at bedtime. Perfect in all respects for apprentice readers: splendid stories, clearly and invitingly laid out and deliciously illustrated in pinkish tones. If by any chance you don't know this book, get a copy now; if you already have one, invest in several more.
