'Richard's eyes were fathomless pools edged with dark rushes. His mouth breathlessly near, seeking to fasten itself on mine', should be enough to given an indicator of the style. The content is young Grace Darling's attempt to land herself her first acting role and thereby gain her Equity card and prove her many detractors wrong. There's a section of horsiness to please the pony club and a whole cast of would-be entertainers to satisfy the stat-struck. Will they, won't they break into the bigtime? I'm pretty sure it's a lot tougher than this book makes it seem!
