I spotted the potential magic of this one back in 1975 when it was first published; a particular fifth-year brute slouched in as a book fair was closing, thrust over his savings and lumbered out with the hardback under his bomber jacket. The horizontally-divided pages provide no fewer than 512 fantastical scenes that stimulate the imagination, amuse and intrigue. It's must for any school, anywhere, anytime. Get Art departments to buy copies too!
