Another story about Cricklepit Comprehensive that's as compulsive and gritty as the others. Ferret's overwhelmingly dominant Dad keeps moving to 'find himself' after Ferret's Mum walks out, and consequently Ferret has never learned to read. Yet another school, particularly one with a teacher's pet who's really a middle-class bully, doesn't bode too well. But life opens out for Ferret and the source of his reading block is discovered. John Green reads Ferret's story with gusto. All the characters are convincing and the whole is spiced with the best of Comprehensive humour.
